REMANDED TO D. C. JAIL

Twenty-Six White House Pickets Removed From The Workhouse at Occoquan By Order of Judge Waddill.

As was stated in the Gazette, twenty-six suffragists, serving terms in the Occoquan workhouse for picketing at the White House, appeared before Judge Edmund Waddill at a special term of the United States Court for the Eastern district of Virginia in Alexandria yesterday morning, on a writ of habeas corpus sued out by their attorneys on the ground that they are illegally detained at Occoquan and harshly treated.

When court adjourned at 5 o'clock the women were paroled in the custody of their counsel until court met this morning. The motion for this action was made by Attorney Dudley Field Malone, former collector of the port of New York, who with Matthew P. O'Brien, of Washington, represents the pickets.

The government is represented by Richard Mann, United States District Attorney, and Frank Stephens, Corporation Counsel, District of Columbia.

The entire day was consumed in arguing the validity of sending the women to Occoquan instead of the District of Columbia jail. Commitment of the women to Occoquan, it was contended, was unconstitutional.

Supt. Zinkham, of the District jail, was placed on the stand in the afternoon and questioned concerning the method whereby the prisoners were taken to Occoquan instead of being kept in the District jail.

It was contended by Corporation Counsel Stephens that the order for their transer to Occoquan was proper.

Many of the women ate luncheon in the court room when recess was taken at 1 o'clock until 2 o'clock in custody of counsel.

When the court was called to order this morning the room was densely packed, most of the attendants being women.

After hearing arguments in the case, Judge Waddill directed that the prisoners be returned to the custody of the superintendent of the Asylum and jail of the District of Columbia.

Judge Waddill refused to investigate charges which had been brought against the Superintendent of the Occoquan Workhouse, stating that it was not a proper subject to be brought up under a writ of habeas corpus.

HE PAID FOR WHISKY

Finds Only Milk Bottles and Bricks When he Opens Suit Case.

Richmond, Nov. 24.—When you buy a suit case of liquor, be sure to open it and examine the contents before closing the deal. That is the timely advice which a Richmond tonsorial artist was passing out yesterday to friends and acquaintances. He was speaking from experience. A day or two ago, a man entered his shop inquiring if he would like to buy a case of good old Bourbon. "What's the cost?" inquired the barber. "Three dollars a quart," was the reply. I'll take the lot," agreed the tonsorial expert.

"There's only one thing I must stipulate," said the liquor salesman. "You must meet me half way." A place was specified on Broad street where the barber was to call and get the twelve quarts. He went and was given a heavily laden grip. He planked down $36 and started back to his shop. Arriving there he opened the grip and to his great surprise and dismay found that it contained a lot of empty milk bottles and a few half bricks which supplied the necessary weight. The police were called in and a search was made for the other fellow, but he was to be found nowhere.

"The Conquerer," Tonight.

William Fox will present "The Conquerer," with Mr. Fox in the leading role at the Richmond Theater tonight.

Julia Sanderson will be seen at the Surprise Theater in "The Runaway." Both are said to be excellent productions.

PRICES IN THE MARKET

Nearly Every Product Upon the Benches This Morning Showed an Advancing Tendency.

Comparatively few country people were in market this morning, but the average number of buyers were on hand. Meteorological conditions were dismal, the heavens during the earlier hours of the day portending snow, while the temperature was down to the freezing point. Frigid conditions and high prices were decidedly in evidence. Eggs were holding their own at 70 and 75 cents per dozen. Right here we will say that last Saturday, while eggs were being disposed of at these figures, this product was being sold in stores in this city at from 40 to 50 cents. It is alleged that one countryman, after disposing of the first stock he brought to market, (and nobody knows where he procured it), proceeded to a certain store and purchased six dozen. He took his new supply to market and sold them at from 70 to 75 cents per dozen, buyers supposing they were fresh eggs from the country.

Butter sold at from 50 to 55 cents per pound this morning. Chickens were held at 85 cents to $1 a piece. Scrapple, well known plebian compound, the bulk of which is corn meal, brought 25 cents per pound.

Sausage meat, quoted in one store in the city at 25 cents a pound, was bringing 35 cents in market.

A number of years ago, during a hard winter, the authorities in Fredericksburg distributed rabbits to the poor of that city. There was at that time a plethora of these creatures in Spotsylvania county. In normal times they bring all the way from 15 to 20 cents each. This morning jack rabbits showed a decided advance in prices, and sold at from 40 to 50 cents each.

TEACHER BEATEN IN ROAD.

Bengies Parent, it is Said, Resented Reprimanding Child.

Baltimore, Nov. 24.—A posse of farmers yesterday captured two men who are alleged to have waylaid and nearly beaten to death yesterday morning Emory E. Shipley, Jr., a teacher in the Bengies public school. The posse, which was armed with shotguns, was headed by Joseph C. Jefferies, father of Mary H. Jefferies a young school teacher at Bengies school, who was with Shipley. She became unconscious from shock and is under the care of a physician.

Walter N. Foxwell, of Bengies, and Edgar Raleigh, of Baltimore, are under arrest. The assault is alleged to have been due to Shipley's having reprimanded one of Foxwell's children in class.

The two teachers were found unconscious on the road by passers-by. According to testimony, the two men leaped from a thicket as the teachers were on their way to school. They attacked Shipley and beat him into insensibility. The girl fell in a faint.

LAWYER IS FINED.

Had Controversy With Policeman—Appeal Taken to Hustings Court.

R. B. Greenway, a Richmond lawyer, was fined $10 in police court yesterday on the charge of failing to move on at Eighth and Broad streets Wednesday afternoon when ordered by Patrolman H. M. Mitchell, of the First district, to do so. An appeal was noted through his attorney. Greenway was waiting on the corner for a westbound street car when Mitchell ordered him to get out in the street within the limited zone where passengers are supposed to wait for cars.

It was testified that after he and the policeman had exchanged words, he stuck his card in the latter's face, saying in a threatening manner that he would report him to the mayor, chief of police, and district captain. At this juncture, Patrolman Frank Gentry stepped up and suggested that the man be arrested. It was the contention of Mitchell that Greenway was blocking the sidewalk when he cautioned him to get out into the street.

The family have many friends and acquaintances in this city and is well known throughout this section of Virginia.

All over the city of Alexandria and probably in many other cities throughout the land, there are flying torn, faded and tattered United States flags, caused by exposure to the weather. Take them down and put up others in their places, if you wish, but do not leave the old ones to be still further torn to pieces by the winds. Some enterprising merchant in Alexandria might do well to let the people know that he sells flags. It is possible some would be glad to purchase them if they knew where they might be obtained.

ANTICIPATES FALL OF CITY

Newspapers Prepare the Public for Evacuation of Jerusalem.

Amsterdam, Nov. 24.—The German newspapers are preparing the public for the loss of Jerusalem.

The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says that to cling to places "which would bring to us no military advantage would be tantamount to the useless sacrifice of numerous Turkish forces and our own troops, and would likewise involve serious losses." After discussing the difficulty of re-enforcing the defenders, it says:

"Anyway, the abandonment of Jerusalem, which is within the bounds of possibility, certainly would be an extremely painful loss, in view of the city's great historical past, but no military change would be caused by such a course."

Lieut. Gen. von Ardenne in the Tageblatt attributes the Turkish retreat from Jaffa to the great range of the guns of the British fleet, and adds:

"Jerusalem is not equipped for defense. Therefore it is not improbable that this advanced position will be abandoned by the Turks."

He insists this will in nowise alter the military situation.

The British master stroke against Cambrai was carried through with a small casualty list. The German prisoners taken exceeded by thousands the whole British losses in killed, wounded and missing.

EX-SHERIFF JAILED

Ordered to Pay Costs of Trial Against Deputies and Federal Agent He Arrested.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 24.—Edward T. Melms, former sheriff of Milwaukee county, who recently caused the arrest of three deputy sheriffs and a federal agent on the ground that they had illegally stopped an editor of a Pittsburgh Polish newspaper from making what they deemed seditious remarks at a peace meeting, was Thursday given into the custody of Sheriff McManus by Judge Page, of the district court, in default of payment of costs of the action.

Judge Page after dismissing the case against the defendants said:

"I find that the complaint was maliciously or wantonly brought and the complaining witness will pay the costs of the action, or, upon default, will be committed to the county jail for 30 days." Melms is a Socialist.

ATTACKED BY BEAR AND CUB

West Virginian Saves Little Daughter After Battle.

Webster Springs, W. Va., Nov. 24.—On his way home with his little daughter, Bernard Baughman was attacked by a bear and her cub. After a desperate battle he succeeded in killing the cub and beating the mother bear off with a club.

Mr. Baughman and his daughter had come here to do some shopping. The little girl rode horseback while the father walked and led the animal. They were only a few miles out of town when they were attacked. Mr. Baughman was unarmed and it was only with the greatest difficulty that he saved his own life and that of his daughter.

Bears have been more plentiful in this county than for years. Many are being killed and four were seen in a single day at Bolaire recently.

War Time Slogans.

They are getting up some excellent slogans for the food conservation and economy campaign. One is: "It's going to take both the men in trenches and the women in retrenches to win this war." Another new motto for housewives is: "Don't stuff your husband, but husband your stuff." Perhaps it might be wiser to say, "If you don't husband your stuff, you can't stuff your husband!" There will be food enough if everybody stops waste, but only economy can save the world from want.—The Progressive Farmer.

British officials have a list of fifty imposters in this country posing as British army men of rank. They say that one, accepted as genuine, sat in a reviewing stand at a recent parade in New York.

215 Pints Are Taken Near This City — Man and Woman Make Their Escape.

More than 200 pints of whisky were taken from an overturned automobile just below St. Asaph, last night by Sheriff Howard B. Field, of Alexandria County. The occupants of the machine, a man and a woman, fled when it was wrecked, and the police have as yet been unable to capture them.

When the car overturned a crowd of soldiers and civilians immediately gathered and 450 pints of whisky were counted in the machine.

Sheriff Field arrived a few minutes later and took charge of the situation, but only 215 pints could be found.

The machine, a large seven passenger Haynes, with a New York license tag, passed through Washington late yesterday afternoon. The action of the occupants in cautiously drawing the curtain as they passed Crossing Policeman A. M. Gibbons at Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue excited his suspicion.

He jumped upon the running board. The car shot forward with greater speed. It was not until Potomac Park was reached that the driver succeeded in knocking Gibbons from the car.

After a dangerous turn in the road just below St. Asaph, the car skidded. One of the wheels gave way and it overturned in the ditch. Both the man and woman in the machine, the latter evidently injured, fled across a field and made their escape.

The whisky which still remained when he arrived on the scene was taken by Sheriff Field to the Alexandria County courthouse. The machine was taken to a garage on north Washington street in this city.

BIG GAME THANKSGIVING DAY.

United States Army Ambulance Team to Play Georgetown University at Washington.

Football fans of Alexandria will have a chance to witness the football game of the year on Thanksgiving day when the U. S. Army Ambulance Corps play Georgetown University on the American league ball park, Washington. The Usaac team comes to Washington with a great record to back it up. In their last six games they have not been scored on, and they now claim the championship of the service, so far as the east is concerned.

They have some of the best known gridiron stars of the country on the team, and in the squad. Practically every large college and university from the Atlantic to the Pacific is represented. Walter Camp, the great football authority of the country, is coming to Washington especially to see this game, and he will judge whether service men will be accorded place on all-American eleven or whether there will be an all-service team chosen.

Georgetown's eleven, now the South Atlantic champions, have a team of which their followers are justly proud. With the exception of their slump in the Navy game, the Blue and Grey have played a championship brand of football all season. They possess one of the fastest backfields in the country, and it is worth the price of admission to see the great Gilroy, and McQuade perform. Their team will be slightly outweighted by the Allentown lads, but Exindine's warriors hope to make up for this with their speed.

One thousand men from the Ambulance Camp at Allentown, Pa., will arrive in Washington next Tuesday or Wednesday, via, ambulance's and army trucks. They will have their full field equipment, including field kitchens, and either on Tuesday or Wednesday they will give a demonstration at the monument lot of first aid work, and will also eat their meal there which will be served as it would be under actual war conditions.

The Usaac's will parade Thursday before the game and probably the day before, led by the seventy-piece Usaac band, and while not actively engaged in showing the people of that city how the ambulance service is run, they will spend some time in seeing the sights of the city. While there they will be quartered at Fort Meyer. Tickets will be put on sale for the game at Dr. Gibson's drug store, at King and Alfred streets, in Alexandria.

CAMBRAI MUST FALL

Teutons Cannot Stand Terrific Blows of Britain's New General.

London, Nov. 24.—Byng was made a full-fledged general yesterday by King George. He celebrated his promotion by resuming his Cambrai drive, and hammering away at the Teutons all day, making new gains. Simulatenously Sir Douglas Haig delivered a successful blow on the Flanders front.

The Germans, at last fully recovered from the big tank surprise blow, have been and are, rushing reserves from every direction to the Cambrai front and are trying in fury-winged counter thrusts to save the town.

A fierce hand-to-hand slaughter all along the line is the result. Throughout the day a terrible house-to-house battle raged in Cantaing, southwest of Cambrai, and when dusk settled upon the battle field the carnage was still in full swing.

The outstanding result of Gen. Byng's drive, however, which Berlin could not, and did not, deny is that the British have gained a fatal grip on Cambrai, their lines three miles to the southwest of the town having stood firm against all Teuton counter blows.

Church bells in London pealed an inspiring victory chant yesterday. The ripping to pieces of the Hindenburg line, coupled with Gen. Allenbys victories in Palestine, called forth this mode of celebration for the first time in the war in Great Britain. The British public is jubilant.

Evidently realizing the futility of maintaining Cambrai as a base, the Germans yesterday began to strip the town of its military stores. British artillery now being moved up into the conquered positions is expected to unloose a terrific bombardment on the town shortly.

OPEN HOUSE FOR FIGHTERS

New Yorkers Offer 15,000 Thanksgiving Dinners.

New York, Nov. 24.—Turkey dinners and entertainments will be provided for every soldier and sailor of the United States or the Allied nations who happens to be in this city on Thanksgiving Day. Police Commissioner Arthur Woods said today that through the co-operation of army and navy officials, clubs and private individuals, arrangements for the holiday entertainment had been completed.

Most of the men will be the guests of various clubs, but offers to entertain at least 2,500 men have been received from private homes. The Patriotic Service League has arranged for dinners for 15,000 soldiers and sailors.

The dinner invitations will be extended to the men by their commanding officers and information as to where they should go will be supplied by police headquarters.

The Devil Resigns in Favor of the Kaiser.

The Devil sat by a lake of fire, on a pile of sulphur kegs,
His head was bowed upon his breast, his tail between his legs,
A look of shame was on his face, the sparks dropped from his eyes,
He sent his resignation to the Throne up in the Skies.
"I'm down and out," the Devil said, and said it with a sob;
"Others there are who outclass me, and I want to quit my job.
Hell isn't in it with the land, that lies along the Rhine;
I'm a has-been and a piker and, therefore, I resign;
One ammunition maker, with his bloody shot and shell
Knows more about damnation than all the imps of hell.
Give my job to Kaiser Wilhelm, to the author of the war—"
"I hate to leave the old home, the spot I love so well,
But I feel that I'm not up-to-date in the art of running hell."

NEW PEACE MOVE SOON.

Pope Benedict Said to be Preparing Note to all Belligerents.

Copenhagen, Nov. 24.—Pope Benedict will make a new move for peace in a very short while, according to the Cologne Zeitung.

It is also stated the peace note to all belligerents is now in process of preparation, and it will enter more fully than the former one into suggestions of conditions which, as far as France is concerned, will be influenced by information which the Pope received from the French cardinals who recently visited Rome.

WHERE'S THE SUGAR?

For the first time within the memory of any person living, many families gathered around supper tables in the southeastern section of this city early last night and gazed upon empty sugar bowls. While coffee and tea were steaming in cups some murmured, while others knowing nothing could be done to alter conditions, sipped these potions, minus sweetening, submissively. Housewives said they had been unable to purchase sugar, although they went from store to store in quest of this commodity.

There seem to be a good many sugar hoards spotted around the United States which, notwithstanding there is something like an actual sugar famine now gripping the country, stay hoarded. The hunt of Mr. Hoover's food sleuths has, within the past thirty days, brought to light some big hoards. The latest secluded stock is the 80,000,000 pounds bought for the Russian government back in the time when Nicholas Romanoff was czar of all the Russians. This sugar will go on the American market. Other hoarded stocks, one of 10,000,000 pounds at Buffalo and another of 12,000,000 in New York, of which there were reports some weeks ago, have not yet gotten into circulation. Or, if so, there has been no publication of the fact.

The Louisiana sugar crop, estimated at 20,0000 tons, or 400,000,000 pounds, seems to be rather slow in reaching the Northern markets. The sugar yield in Cuba is large and raw sugar from the West Indies region will soon be coming to the American refineries if ships can be found to handle the business. It has been arranged to bring ships from the lakes for handling the Cuban sugars. Beet sugars from the Rocky West and Hawaiian sugar from San Francisco and Seattle are reported to be moving toward the Eastern region of the United States.

It is known that there are a great many small sugar hoards—100-pound lots, barrel lots and such hoarded private family stocks—which, later along, will help the general sugar situation. The worst phase of the sugar shortage has probably been passed. But there should be continuuous economy in the use of sugar.

THE ZIONISTS' DREAM.

The British may celebrate the Christmas of 1917 in Jerusalem. This brings great joy to the Jews throughout the world. The Zionists have longed for a condition favoring autonomy, and Great Britain has promised it.

The British are now within five miles of the historic city, the Germans and Turks are preparing to evacuate it, and probably by this time next week the cross will be flying over the city instead of the crescent.

The solution of the Jewish problem through Zionism, or, the realization of Jewish nationalist aspirations through the Zionist platform, in the right of modern events, is no longer a hopeless dream. Zionism—the creation of a political center in Palestine for the Jewish people from which all its forces are to radiate—is today hope inspired by the friendly assurance of co-operation for its achievement by Great Britain, The Hague, and possibly, America.

The Jewish people is today virtually a homeless nation, with its own great literature, its living language, spoken by hundreds of thousands of Hebrews all over the face of the earth, its own philosophy. The Jewish nation has all the attributes of a nation with the exception of a home. The great contribution of this people to the literature and language of the world—the Bible—unequaled by any other nation, alone would make it worthy of the name of "nation."

Since the hymn was first penned in the sixteenth century hundreds of thousands of Christian believers have sung the lines "Jerusalem, My Happy Home! When Shall I Come To Thee?" Wonderfully tender and aspirational are the sentiments of the old hymn. Fate, destiny, providence has flung back the dark curtain of Mohammedanism that has shrouded Jerusalem for a number of centuries, and the hosts of Christendom are now looking to the restoration of the sacred city, with its holy places to the possession of Christian believers.

Nearly two years ago a small book was sent from its New York publishers to the Gazette. It was entitled "The Jews in the War Zone." Among other things it stated that one-half of the Jews of the world were within that zone, and that their sufferings were indescribable. Their condition has not improved, but, if anything has become more critical.

A vivid story of the intense suffering among the Jews in Poland and Lithuania from the lack of clothing and food is told in a cablegram received at the Department of State from the American Legation in Copenhagen and made public last night.

Weakened by starvation 33,000 persons have developed tuberculosis, while of the 90,000 Jewish children in Warsaw only 21,000 live in homes, 69,000 of the suffering children begging in the streets.

Suffering is so intense, the cablegram declared, that parents do all possible to hide the deaths of their children so that they might retain their bread cards.

Conditions in Lithuania are still worse, the message declared. One and a half million are suffering in the occupied territory and funds collected in Russia for their relief cannot be sent them because of exchange difficulties.

GERMANY DESPERATE.

Germany has got to make good the body blow it is receiving at Cambrai. The renewed energy against the Italians is indicative of the desperation that is driving the virtually defeated Central Powers to the maximum of their efforts. At the same time the endeavor is being made to bring about a truce, or armistice, or a separate peace with the Russian moiseys who are in control in that country with a view to the freeing of the German forces on that front and the liberation of the German prisoners. This would tend to depress the Allies and to weaken their morale were it not that the move has been discounted and its effects will not be what Germany calculates.

The Baltimore American in commenting upon conditions on the western front says the strike of General Haig at Ypres, while the action at Cambrai becomes the more intense and the renewed activities of General Petain is sign the determination of the Allies to keep the foe too busily engaged in various directions to be able to meet a concentrated drive in any one direction.

Germany's efforts are being redoubled, but the war cannot be won by the energy of despair, particularly with the power of the Allies growing every hour.

Our contemporary calls attention to the fact that if the Germans cannot whip their foes, in very literal fashion they ply the whip to the backs of their own men. The British army headquarters in France report that among the troops rushed to Cambrai from other sectors were two companies of cripples and convalescents, some of whom when captured were in a state of pitiful exhaustion due as well to the merciless whips of their officers, plied upon their backs.

The Russian knout, the terror of the Russian foot soldier of old days of monarchical tyranny, is surpassed in cruelty by the whips that are used by the whipmasters of the Kaiser. Time and again has there been evidence that the officers fired at their own men, having squads to do this work for the purpose of driving the German lines to meet the foe when the conditions were such that it was fatal to go forward and death to refrain. But this evidence of the use of cripples and invalids and the plying of the whip upon these decrepits supplies yet another chapter in the volume of German brutality.

FORCE OF GOOD EXAMPLE

(Warrenton Times.)

Once upon a time some boys living on opposite sides of Broad Run, not a great distance from Ellis Ford in Prince William county, were selling pies to a Yankee picket, as was the custom during the war, it being one of the few ways for women and children to make a little money. The soldiers in paying for the pies dropped a five dollar gold piece, when Phil Triplett, one of the boys, put his foot on it and kept the money concealed until the picket resumed his walk to and fro. Then Phil picked up the money and the boys departed. He took it home, knowing how much it was needed there, and triumphantly gave it to his mother, telling her how he had concealed it from the Yankee. To his surprise, his mother was distressed instead of pleased. She told him he had taken what did not belong to him and directed him to carry it back to the owner. Phil argued the case with her, saying the Yankees had shot off his older brother's arm, had taken off the horses, and all the corn out of the corn house, and that he thought it would be all right with the Lord if he got something from them any way he could. (Phil was nine years old.) His mother, however, was relentless and made him take the money back to its owner, which he did with a heavy heart. The lesson was a severe one, but it taught him the difference between "mine and thine," which, if he had been allowed to keep the money, he might never have found out.

WILL PAIN THE KAISER.

(Philadelphia Record.)

In publishing a White Book showing in complete detail the extent of Norway's losses in ships and men through German submarines' operations the Norwegian government displays a degree of courage that is likely to give great pain to the Kaiser's Foreign Office. A sharp rebuke will be in order for such independence. Undoubtedly in all this German brutality—the destruction of great quantities of Scandinavian shipping engaged in neutral trade, the torpedoing of Belgian relief vessels and of steamships laden with cargoes of grain for the Dutch government, the sinking of Argentine craft "without leaving a trace," etc.—there is a distinct method. In German eyes a steamship is an ocean carrier, no matter what its nationality or mission may be, and the more of them that can be sent to the bottom the less will be the competition for German vessels after the close of the war. So submarine commanders doubtless act under orders when they engage in wholesale destruction of neutral merchantmen. They tried the trick on the United States, but it failed to work. If Norway were a larger and more powerful country it would be justified in declaring war upon Germany because of the many wrongs it has suffered.

"Red" Ministry Is Deserting.

Petrograd, Nov. 24.—The Bolsnevik ministry is crumbling and famine is stalking nearer the Capital. Daily rations have again been reduced. Kerensky's food ministry remains adamant in its refusal to recognize the Bolsheviki government. Eleven Bolsheviki ministers have resigned. Admiral Verderevsky, Minister of Marines, was the latest. Captain Ivanoff is his successor.

A conference at general headquarters adopted resolutions favoring a new all-Socialist government, include Bolsheviki, and Maximalists, to be under Tschernoff as Premier.

Stockholm, Nov. 24.—A Russian diplomat is said to be carrying a peace offer from the Central Powers on a special train to Petrograd.

ROUT CARRANZA FORCES.

Federal Advance is Driven Back Toward Chihuahua City.

Presidio, Tex., Nov. 24.—Villa's troops have driven the advance guard of the Mexican federal forces in the vicinity of Cuchillo Parado back toward Chihuahua city, according to information received here yesterday.

Villa was in command of his column, which included half of his entire force, the remainder being left at San Juan del Rio and Ojinaga, according to the information received here.

Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 24.—Official investigation made today of the defense of Ojinaga by Gen. Espionosa y Cordova and his 600 federals revealed that they had less than 2,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and no machine gun ammunition left when they abandoned the town and fled to the American side at Presidio.

This fact, coupled with reports made to American officers by the two American deserters, Lawrence and Kearns, who operated the federal machine gun, may absolve Gen. Espionosa y Cordova and his officers from blame for evacuation of Ojinaga before the Villa assault.

Arrangements were being completed tonight for a turning movement against Villa's forces in the Ojinaga sector, with Juarez as the base. There were 2,500 troops in the garrison here last night.

ARMISTICE PARLEY.

Amsterdam, Nov. 24.—Russian soldiers have already abandoned their advanced positions against German and Austrian troops on various parts of the front, according to the Frankfurther Zeitung. The newspaper today printed dispatches from Tarnopol that the Russians were preparing to complete evacuation of Grzymalow and Skalat.

Copenhagen, Nov. 24.—Formal negotiations for an armistice have opened on the eastern front between the Germans and Russians, according to dispatches received today by the Social Demokraten.

Germany's peace terms to Russia involve Austria-Hungary, Roumania Bulgaria, and Turkey, according to information received here today.

It was declared on good authority that the following are the chief propositions laid down by the Kaiser:

1. Poland to be independent under Teutonic "protection."

2. Austria to get an indemnity from Russia.

3. Bulgaria to get Dobrudjt and to control the mouth of the Danube for Austrian and German "commercial purposes."

4. Turkey to regain all the territory overrun by Russian troops and to be accorded trade routes in Persia and the Caucassus previously held by Russia.

CHILD CRUSHED BY AUTO.

Little Baltimore Girl Loses Life on Birthday.

Baltimore, Nov. 24.—When little Iwana Fitzgerald, of 640 Cokesbury avenue, who was just 4 years old yesterday, saw a big auto-truck of the American Express Co., standing near her home yesterday afternoon she and a group of her playmates thought it would be fine fun to climb up on it and "pretend they were riding." Five minutes afterward she lay in a tiny heap in the street, her head crushed under one of the ponderous wheels and her body twisted and torn. She died instantly.

The accident was due to the release of the brake of the big machine, and Allen Nagle, 11 years old, one of her chums, is said to have been the cause of it. The lad is now held at the Northeastern Police Station, charged with causing the little girl's death. When the brake was thrown back, the weight of the truck caused it to move at first slowly down the incline at that point of Cokesbury avenue, and in a moment, the great vehicle had gained surprising momentum and a crash with a wall at the bottom of the hill seemed imminent.

The children aboard began to scream pitifully, and several spectators were forced to look on the impending disaster helpless. Suddenly, one of the children leaped to the ground, rolled over several times and then arose, limping. This boy's example was followed by the others, one by one with the exception of little Iwana, who was too frightened to make the leap, and her brother, James.

The boy finally leaned far out from the seat of the truck and screamed to his sister: "Jump, sis, jump before we hit the wall." And he made a flying leap, landing in a heap in the street bed. Iwana began to cry when her brother left her. Releasing her hold on the handles at the side of the seat, she lifted her arms and tried to jump far out of the path of the truck. But fright had sapped what fragile strength she possessed and the leap was short. Her body twisted in midair and she landed in a crumpled heap directly in a line with the great forewheel.

Men and women, standing by in awe, closed their eyes and gasped in horror as the truck rolled on like a juggernaut. Each revolution of the big wheels brought death nearer to the child. Doubtless the fall had rendered her senseless, for she remained still save for the nervous twitching of one of her little arms.

In two seconds the heavy solid tire had struck her head, the big machine tilted almost imperceptibly and then settled again, continuing its mad race to the bottom of the incline. Finally the same wheel which had struck the child brought up against a curb, the truck veered and came to a dead stop. But it had left in the path behind the lifeless body of little Iwana, who had thought a "pretend ride" would be so much fun.

TEUTONS ARE CHECKED

Italians Stem Tide of Invaders, Who Fail in All Day Assails—Meet Severe Losses.

London, Nov. 24.—An Italian statement, received here late last night announces that the enemy is fortifying the Tagliamento line. This may be simply a measure of reasonable precaution, but it is interpreted in some quarters as meaning the enemy has about given up hope of advancing farther into the Venetian plains.

The Italian northern armies have weathered another grave crisis. They emerged from the last twenty-four hours complete masters of the mountain positions which the Teutons are battering in their attempt to break through to the plain, Italian "aggressive spirit and bravery," as the Rome official report puts it, checked the Teuton tide just as it threatened to roll over the natural barrier.

Despite the profligate use of tear-producing shells and the employment of dense masses, the Teutons failed in an all-day assault that was designed to mask the Meletta Mountain. "Very severe losses" were inflicted on the attackers, Rome reports.

On the vital front between the Piave and Brenta rivers a fearful slaughter took place all day yesterday. There, too, the Italians remained masters of their lines on the heights above "Saw Mountain" (Monte Grappo.)

Some positions changed hands several times. The Italians counter-attacked ceaselessly with the fury of men who know that their country's fate rests upon their tenacity. In the Meletta fighting the Latins even took prisoners, eight officers and 191 men. Berlin in its day bulletins asserted the battle in the mountains was "progressing favorably."

TO CIRCULATE BILLIONS.

Short-term Notes to be Paid Before Maturity.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Secretary McAdoo last night announced a new plan to place in circulation the huge sum of nearly $2,000,000,000 accumulated in the Treasury as a result of big over-payments received this week from the Liberty Loan.

Three hundred million dollars of certificates of indebtedness due December 15 were called in for redemption on December 6, and another issue of $400,000,000 of certificates also due December 15, will be redeemed December 11, both issues at par with accrued interest. This arrangement will leave only the $685,000,000 issue to be paid December 15.

The Secretary decided to call in the two issues before their maturity when it became evident that the aggregate amount of the payments November 15, on Liberty Loan subscriptions in cash, credit and Treasury certificates, was about $2,400,000,000 three and a half times more than was due on the 18 per cent. instalment. In other words, it is now disclosed by belated reports trickling in to the Treasury that nearly two-thirds of the aggregate subscriptions to the second Liberty Loan have been paid in full. Tabulations tomorrow are expected to show that about $1-,750,000,000 in cash was received this week.

Subscriptions to the latest issue of certificates of indebtedness to be dated, November 30, and due June 25, 1918, to counteract the flood of income and excess profits taxes on the latter date, have been generous since the issue was announced two days ago. The exact amount of subscriptions have not been announced by Secretary McAdoo, however.

PLEADS OWN CAUSE.

Negro's Argument That He Was Interstate Traveler Fails to Work.

Richmond, Nov. 24.—William Hines' plea that he was an interstate traveler and was, therefore, immune from punishment failed to avail him anything yesterday in hustings court, when he was tried on the charge of transporting ardent spirits. Acting as his own counsel, Hines, who is a North Carolina negro from Goldsboro, argued that he was beyond the pale of the state law because he was merely passing through Virginia on his way from Washington to North Carolina.

In an effort to strengthen his point, he produced a railroad pass. He said that he was traveling on this because he was employed as a section hand on the Southern railway near his home town. He was arrested here October 1 with a grip containing one quart of whisky and eight quarts of gin.

He was alleged to have alighted from the train at Ashland and came into Richmond on the trolley line. He was on the street when taken into custody. Judge Richardson instructed the jury that if it believed that he left the train at Ashland and then came into Richmond by the trolley route he should be held accountable at law. The jury returned a verdict of a month in jail and a $50 fine.

CASE OF PROFESSOR WHIPPLE

University of Virginia Faculty Protest Against His Utterances.

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 24.—Members of the faculty of the University of Virginia presented a signed communication to President Alderman yesterday recommending that Prof. Leonidas Whipple, director of the school of journalism, be notified that they considered such teachings as expressed by him in a recent speech disloyal and deserving of condemnation by all patriotic citizens.

President Alderman said the faculty as a governing body and the board of visitors would be called upon promptly to take action.

Professor Whipple, in a statement, denied that he voiced pro-German utterances. He said the essence of his plea was that "America use her noblest vision, intellect, courage and spirit to find and try new ways to the lasting peace which will serve all humanity."

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Gov. H. C. Stuart yesterday stated that he had called upon Armistead C. Gordon, rector of the University of Virginia, at Staunton, urging upon him a prompt meeting of the board of visitors of that institution to take action on the pacifist utterances attributed to Prof. Leonidas R. Whipple, director of the school of journalism at the university, in his recent speech at Sweet Briar College. Mr. Gordon, it is stated, has already called a meeting of the board.

600 COAL CARS HELD UP.

Shortage in Fuel Increased by Tie-up at Park Junction, Pa.

An embargo on coal shipments declared by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is holding up six hundred car loads of coal consigned to Washington and surrounding territory.

There is scarcely any coal in Washington, dealers declare, and hundreds of tons of anthracite are held up at Park Junction, just outside Philadelphia, Pa., because of the embargo.

Dr. Garfield, Federal fuel director and John L. Weaver, administrator for the District, declared they are making every possible effort to induce the Baltimore and Ohio to lift the embargo and allow the greatly needed shipments to come through.

Park Junction, Pa., is the gateway of anthracite coal shipments to Washington, Baltimore and surrounding territory.

With an embargo on coal shipments at that point, practically no coal will be received here.

"Every possible effort is being made to induce the railroad to lift this embargo by the Federal Fuel Administration," Mr. Weaver declared last night.

How long it will continue in effect is not known. Freight congestion in the yards, it is said, made necessary the measure.

SCRIPPS MUST SERVE

Head of Press Association Denied Exemption From Army

Los Angeles, Nov. 24.—James G. Scripps, directing head of newspapers owned by his father, E. W. Scripps, of San Diego, and chairman of the board of the United Press Associations and the Newspaper Enterprise Association, was denied exemption from military service yesterday by the District Exemption Board. The appeal from a San Diego board was filed by his father and supported by his business associates, who contended he would be more valuable to the United States as the chief executive of the several newspapers and press services.

Girl Shines Shoes.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 24.—Evelyn Charlier, 17 years old, and pretty, daughter of J. J. Charlier, president of the Midway National Bank in Washington county, is shining shoes to earn $10, which she pledged to the Y. M. C. A. war fund. Miss Charlier is a senior in the McDonald High school and is performing her shoe shining tasks after school hours.

"Certainly I'm shining shoes," the girl said, when asked if the report was correct. She has received a position in a barber shop. Incidentally the barber shop's shoe shining patronage has increased greatly.

Barred From Sky Scrappers.

New York, Nov. 24.—Germans have been prohibited from entering sky scrapers here, on order of United States Marshal McCarthy. This is to prevent enemy aliens from using the buildings as vantage points from which to view shipping in the harbor.

Turks Worry Kaiser.

Amsterdam, Nov. 24.—The Kaiser has summoned General Hindenburg, quartermaster-General Ludendorff, and General von Mackensen to Berlin for a conference on possible aid to Turks, in Palestine. Emperor Wilhelm worries over England's Turkish victories.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The law passed by the war emergency session of the Maryland legislature making Prince George County dry, after June 1, was declared constitutional yesterday by Judge Heuisler, in the Baltimore city court. The decision of Judge Heuisler was rendered in a case brought to test the constitutionality of the law, which State officials declared, went into effect last June. The wets contended that the law did not become operative until June 1, 1918.

A trial separation is the latest in the divorce courts. Mrs. Marion S. Adler was granted one yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Gavegan, in New York. It will last one year. If she and her husband cannot become reconciled in the twelve months, a divorce decree will be entered. Mrs. Adler says her husband wrote a prayer eighteen months ago beseeching heaven to help him to get rid of his wife. The prayer was the basis of her suit. The court believes the two will come together again. Thus the trial separation. In the meantime Dr. Adler must pay alimony to his wife. She will have the custody of their adopted child.

The American Federation of Labor declared in convention in Buffalo last night that labor is not property and that any court or other decision holding that it is must be "held as usurpation and be disregarded, let the consequences be what they will." This action was taken after a debate on a Washington State court's decision against strike picketing. The court action was denounced as reactionary. The case has been left in the hands of the A. F. of L. executive council. An appeal may be taken.

Despite German submarines, the United States has transported to France, without the loss of a man, all the troops the army's plans called for up to this time. "The submarine is no longer a menace, although it is a handicap," said Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, discussing the situation yesterday in the light of late developments and reports from Vice Admiral Sims at London.

Warning was sent yesterday by the United States Fuel Administration to the Oklahoma bituminous coal operators, who have threatened a closing down of the mines through labor controversy, unless the government should grant a mine price increase to carry out new wage agreements, that the mines must not be allowed to close in any circumstances, pending settlement.

Secretary of War Baker authorizes a statement on the progress being made in sending troops to Europe. He says that the number of troops actually transported overseas was greater than the government had expected to have there at this time. In other words, Gen. Pershing's fighting force is being increased more rapidly than the United States government anticipated. It may be estimated arbitrarily that there are upwards of 250,000 American troops now in Europe, with others constantly either en route or waiting to go.

The traveling auditor of a grain company declared Thursday night in Mobridge, S. D., that an average of four elevators a day are being destroyed by fire in the Dakotas and Minnesota. The fires, he said, were traceable to various "phosphorus" gangs.

Alice Karlson, a young school teacher who recently shot and killed her father at their home in the town of Scotts, near Kalamazoo, Mich., was acquitted yesterday by a Circuit court jury. The girl declared that she shot her father because he had been cruel to her mother. Miss Karlson also testified that he had wronged her when she was a child. Miss Karlson had been away from home for several days before the shooting took place. She returned home late at night, went to her father's room and shot him. He ran from the room to the kitchen where he fell to the floor. His daughter entered and fired two more shots into his body. When sheriff's deputies reached the home Miss Karlson was waiting to be arrested.

The British war office last night issued the following statement on military operations in southern Arabia: "We attacked and captured a Turkish post at Jabir, 15 miles north of Aden. Losses were inflicted on the enemy and his defenses were destroyed.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Lieutenant Resnati, Italian aviator, stationed at Langley Field, Newport News, has received a cablegram announcing the death of his 20-year-old brother, Michael in a thrilling aerial battle over the Teuton line, which is pushing into Italy. Michael Resnati had destroyed several Austro-German planes. His two sisters are Red Cross nurses; his father has gone to the front with the Italian Medical Corps, and his mother is nursing wounded in the Italian hospitals.

Otterburn Springs sanatorium in Amelia county, was destroyed by fire last night. The loss is placed at $50,000, but is practically covered, it is said, by insurance. Two cottages on the place were also burned. The origin of the fire is now being investigated, and within the next few days a meeting of the board of directors of the company will be called to consider plans for rebuilding. The sanatorium is known all throughout this section of the country, the springs being famed for their medicinal qualities. The sanatorium is about three-quarters of a mile from Amelia courthouse.

The Third Virginia regiment is now moving towards "Somewhere in France." With that slogan the recruiting officers appointed by Governor Stuart and Adjutant General Sale are waging a vigorous campaign for recruits to bring up to full war strength this new organization, which has recently been authorized by the war department, in order to complete Virginia's quota in the volunteer branch of the United States army. This state now has three regiments in active service, and, according to her allotment, should furnish another.

As a result of being knocked down and run over by a big automobile truck in front of her home at 2802 East Marshall street, Richmond, yesterday morning, Orene Towsey, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Towsey, was probably fatally injured. The little girl was getting a bottle of milk from a wagon in the street when the truck, driven by a negro, came down Marshall going east. The negro continued on his way, it was said, without stopping to ascertain how badly hurt the child was. He was later arrested.

The town of Eagle Mountain, sixty-five miles west of Lynchburg, was threatened with destruction by fire Wednesday night. The blaze started after 10 o'clock from an unknown cause. Three stores had been destroyed and Clifton Forge had been requested to send its fire department. The town is at the junction of the James River line and Newcastle branch of the C. and O. railway and has about a thousand inhabitants.

Morton Glass, a middle-aged negro, of Danville, was Wednesday convicted of murder in the County Circuit Court, and sentenced to serve eighteen years in the penitentiary. The accused thrashed Willie Pettey, a child, aged four, so severely that the child died soon afterward. The negro told officers that the boy had been crushed to death under a woodpile. The explanation was accepted until the man's wife told the police that the death resulted from ill usage.

WINS FROM MINE UNION.

Bache-Denman Syndicate is Given Verdict of $200,000 in Strike Case.

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 24.—The jury in the suit of the Bache-Denman Syndicate against the International Mine Workers and others returned a verdict Thursday afternoon in the Federal Court, awarding the plaintiffs damages to the sum of $200,000. Under the Sherman act the plaintiffs are entitled to three times this amount, or $600,000.

The plaintiffs sued for two and a quarter million dollars, alleging their properties had been damaged to that amount, by the acts of violence of the union miners at their Prairie Creek mines in Sebastian county in July, 1914, following the attempt of the mine operators to work their mines with non-union men. Several lives were sacrificed in the shooting that occurred, and two troops of United States cavalry were sent here to uphold the orders of the United States Marshal who had been placed in charge of the property.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 24.—The United Mine Workers of America will begin immediate preparations for taking to the higher courts the case decided at Fort Smith, it was said at the mine workers headquarters here Thursday. The questions involved in the suit are of vital interest to all union labor, probably as much so as the Danbury Hatters' case, and the question of carrying the fight to the higher courts will probably be laid before the American Federation of Labor in its convention at Buffalo by Frank Hayes, president, and William Green, secretary of the mine workers.

GERMAN PLANTS BOMB

Reinboldt A. Faust Confesses Attempt to Scare Chicago Bankers.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Reinboldt A. Faust, a German-American, 52 years old, and for about thirty-five years a resident of Chicago, planted the bomb in the Auditorium one night last week which threatened death and injury to the opera audience.

Faust lives with his wife and two grown children. He confessed to police and Federal officials last night. He had written letters to James B. Forgan and Frank O. Wetmore, executive heads of the First National Bank, demanding that they surrender $100,000 to him.

Angered because he had not been paid the money, he said: "I wanted the bombs to cause a scare and prove that I could make good."

Faust said he used two bombs. One was used to ignite the other. Government experts declared the contrivance could have killed hundreds.

"I was actuated solely by hate in my heart for the so-called wealthy classes," Faust declared.

In the basement of Faust's home was found a satchel containing enough dynamite, nitroglycerin and other explosives to blow the Auditorium or other mammoth buildings to pieces.

Faust declared he did not intend that the bombs should injure anyone, but that he used them to "cause a scare."

Faust's letters to Forgan and Wetmore are practically unintelligible.

The authorities believe he is demented.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all. It surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know that I am permanently cured. I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. I did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended by medical practitioners, and 50 years of use has proven that its results are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134
